

Low Angle Rescue

This program will cover the NFPA requirements for low angle rescue systems. Ropes, knots and related equipment will be clearly explained in a hands-on environment. At the completion of this program students will be able to build and identify proper anchors, size mechanical advantage systems (raising and lowering systems) and control the related operations. Students will be familiar with various equipment types and will be able to determine which to use in various rescue scenarios.

www.aftslc.com